

Kurzweil 3000 v12 Format Matrix

Standalone - Ideal for single users, or designated testing areas

Network - Best for building-wide usage. Install anywhere within the network - and use up to the purchased number of licenses concurrently

Web Licensing - Licenses are managed via Web services hosted by Cambium Learning Technologies, allowing installation on any computer - school, home, library, or other (with an active internet connection)

USB Flash Drive - Portable and convenient USB flash drive contains Kurzweil 3000 for Windows and storage (requires open USB port, and stick must be included in virus scan)

Kurzweil 3000 Format Options Features Matrix

	Stand Alone Edition	USB Edition*	Network Edition	Web Edition
Portability to different computers	Single workstation with unlimited users	Yes, assuming USB ports are accessible	When using License-to-Go, administrators can assign a license for designated period of time for off-network use.	Requires Internet access
Multiple Profiles	Yes, unlimited users	No	Yes, can be created under the student Windows log in	Yes
Reporting	Limited reporting ability	No	Yes; usage and progress reports	Assignments & Reporting included for 1 yr, then renewable under Maintenance Agreement
Kurzweil 3000 Taskbar	Yes	No	Additional install	Additional install
Universal Library	Yes	No	Yes	Yes, web based
Lock Features	Yes, password protected	No	Yes, convenient broadcasting feature that can send features or lock out features across the network	Yes, on individual computer
Additional Notes		$100.00 replacement fee is USB is lost Important to scan device for virus	District can name multiple administrators to allow for individual school setups.	Schools can provide client software to students for loading on home computer – download or burn CD

*v12 USB release date Winter 2011